Women Grad Student Group

“We are to achieve a richer culture, rich in contrasting values, we must recognize the whole gamut of human potentialities, and so weave a less arbitrary social fabric, one in which each diverse gift will find a fitting place.”
- Margaret Mead -

A place where women graduate students can connect and build a supportive community with values of empowerment, collaboration, and egalitarianism. Be part of a safe space and explore personal experiences, issues, and concerns related to power, privilege, intersecting identities, and other topics related to being a woman in graduate school. This group is designed for women of all ages, backgrounds, and identities, including racial, ethnic, cultural, and sexual identities.

Mondays, 12:00-1:30pm, University Counseling Center, Blue Room 344 Student Services Building, Call 581-6826 for information and registration.

The University of Utah seeks to provide equal access to its programs, services, and activities for people with disabilities. If you will need accommodations, reasonable prior notice needs to be given to the Women’s Resource Center and to the Center for Disability Services, 162 Olpin Union Building at 581-5020 (V/TDD) to make arrangements for accommodations. Such accommodations will be afforded based on the specific disability and as agreed in writing. This statement in no way asks that a person identify him or herself as having a disability.
